

Code of Ethics for Research

Researcher will adhere to the academic integrity, help to create atmosphere of trust and fairness in institution. The researcher must have feeling of responsibility towards the institutions. Specifically the researchers will follow the following in letter and Spirit.

1. The researcher will uphold the dignity of the alma-mater.
2. The researcher will adhere to the norms of intellectual property rights i.e. will.
3. Duly acknowledge the source of information in the research and will cite correct source of the information and idea.
4. The researcher will maintain transparency in data management i.e. data collection, analysis and reporting.
5. Any fabrication of data, information etc must be avoided and any violation of the norm if comes in the notice of the authorities will result in the expulsion of the researcher from the college.
6. While collecting data the researcher must not give assurance of any benefit to any respondent or any agency.
7. The researcher will never disclose confidential information shared by the respondent and will use the information only for research.
8. The researcher i.e. will not use primary data collected for commercial purposes.
9. The researcher must not indulge in deliberate misuse and sabotage of college resources and property.
10. The researcher will show due respect to research supervisor, faculty members, fellow researchers and junior students.
11. The research scholar while visiting other institutions, such as libraries, archives, laboratories and offices will strictly maintain the decorum and adhere to the code of the conduct of the visiting institutions.
12. The researcher in his conduct i.e. and will not misinterpret the information and data deliberately.
13. The researcher will be unbiased will not use derogatory language, gestures overtly and covertly to any person, gender, community, race, religion, region, nation and agency.
14. The researchers before submitting the research for evaluation to the competent/designated authorities will mandatorily submit a self-declaration that research work is original and is not plagiarized in any aspect.
15. If needed the researcher will support the institution in class room teaching and invigilation, as per the norms applicable.