SEVEN DAYS NATIONAL WORKSHOP

On

Preparation of e-Resources for School and College Subjects

(23rd -29th March, 2018)

About the workshop:

The digital India Program is a flagship Program of Government of India, with a vision to transform India into a digitally empowered and knowledge economy. Digital resources are truly assessable when they are easily available everywhere and for everyone.

Digital content, also known as e-resources including all kinds of content created and delivered through various electronic media. A well developed e-content based on the different School and College Subjects can help to teach the School subjects effectively to the learners and hence improving teaching learning environment.

Basic purposes of the workshop are

- To make aware about the importance of e-resources in digital era.
- to develop and create the e-resources in various school and college subjects,
- to explain the process of e-content development
- to make aware the School teachers, college teachers and teacher educators regarding free and open education resources.
- To create awareness about netiquettes.

Keeping into consideration the above purposes department of Teacher Education, N.A.S College is organizing seven days national workshop on the topic 'Preparation of e-Resources for School and College Subjects' from 23rd -29th Mrach,2018.

About Meerut

Meerut is a city, as old as our civilization, as suggested by the Harappan settlement found at Alamgirpur. This settlement is the eastern-most point of Indus Valley civilization. Another excavation at Vidur-Tila revealed ancient remains of Hastinapur, suggesting that Meerut flourished in the period of Mahabharata. Meerut has also been one of the major sites from where the Revolt of 1857 arose. The winds of Meerut were the first to hear the slogan, “Dilli Chalo”.

At present, city is one of the largest producers of Sports goods, and musical Instrument India. The city is also known as “Sports City of India”. Apart from being an important city of Western U.P., Meerut is also a district and a divisional head-quarter. The city is also an education hub in the western U.P. with four Universities imparting education in the field of medicine, engineering, management, agriculture, teacher education, pharmacy, Faison designing, law, hotel management, science and humanities.

Meerut is situated in the upper Ganga-Yamuna Daob and lies between latitude 28.98° N and longitude 77.70° E. It is situated at a distance of 461 km West-North of Lucknow, the state capital of U.P. and 65 km North-East of New Delhi on National Highway number 58. It can be assessed /traversed by train, bus of car easily.
